

REUNION WEEKEND '09
BY THE NUMBERS

2,726 ATTENDEES
20 CAMPUS LOCATIONS
35 EVENTS
7 TENTS
250 CAMPUS HOUSING ROOMS
4 SOLD-OUT HOTELS
4,913 MEALS
19,326 BEVERAGES
143,000 CALORIES OF ICE CREAM
4 BANDS
140 DELTA TAU NU BROTHERS
40 STUDENT WORKERS
24 GOLF CARTS
4 CORNHOLE BOARDS
200 ROSES AT THE WEDDING VOW CEREMONY
147 RUNNERS AND WALKERS AT THE FLYER FUN RUN/WALK
48 HOURS OF SUNSHINE
0 HOURS OF RAIN
1 INCREDIBLE WEEKEND

New faces

The annual Alumni Leadership Council in September saw several changes in the leadership of the National Alumni Association.

Linda Berning '82 became the new president of the board at the conclusion of the term of Frank Geraci '73. Kevin Maloney '69 became president-elect of the National Alumni Association board. Stacy Ziarko '03, president of the UD alumni chapter in Detroit, was named chapter council at-large representative to the NAA board. Joining her as fellow new board members are Ray Blakeney '93, Maureen Geraghty '82 and Steve Junker '84. Rick Granite '88 is the board's new treasurer.

Red and blue face off

The men's and women's basketball teams' annual intersquad scrimmage will be Saturday, Oct. 24, at UD Arena. Doors open at 9 a.m., and admission is free. Visit <http://www.daytonflyers.com> for more information.

Don't let the Red Scare have all of the fun

Just before classes started this fall, the department of athletics announced it will offer free admission to three fall sports: volleyball and men's and women's soccer.

The goal? "To build attendance and atmosphere at games," said Tim Wabler, director of athletics, so come be a part of it. Team schedules are available at <http://www.daytonflyers.com>.

Golden Flyers celebrate

This year's Golden Flyers fall luncheon will feature guest speaker retired Maj. Gen. Ed Mechenbi-er. At the time of his retirement in 2004 at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, he was the Air Force's last Vietnam-era former prisoner of war still serving. The luncheon will be held Thursday, Oct. 8.

Plans are also in place for the annual Golden Flyers Mass and Christmas party, scheduled this year for Saturday, Dec. 19.

For more information about either event, contact the office of alumni outreach at 888-UD-ALUMS.

Doing alumni business

The School of Business Administration hosted an SBA Alumni Weekend Sept. 11-12. Events included a golf outing and dinner featuring remarks by Dean Matthew Shank and athletics director Tim Wabler.

Hey, young alums

UD has launched day10, the official group for alumni who have graduated within the last 10 years or are under the age of 35.

day10 will offer programming, events and networking opportunities. To offer your event ideas or get involved, contact Nick Beck '04 at becknick@gmail.com or join the group on Facebook.

Still a Family: A Guide to Good Parenting Through Divorce / LISA RENÉ REYNOLDS '90 /

Lisa René Reynolds was teaching a six-hour parenting class for divorcing parents with children when she decided to write a book on parenting through divorce. "Other divorce books focus on mediation, money, arrangements, who gets what," she said, "but parenting initiatives need more than a few chapters to be helpful."

Homeland Security and Federalism / MATT MAYER '93 /

Matt Mayer, the former head of the Office of State and Local Government Coordination and Preparedness for the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, offers "a rational risk model to guide where our limited resources should be allocated so that they will lead to less pork and more protection," rooting his argument in the premise that "best practices from outside the Beltway ... vindicate the role of federalism in solving America's complex challenges."

Complete Guide to Investing During Retirement / THOMAS MASKELL '75 /

Thomas Maskell offers retirees investment tips for retirement through investments in the stock market. "We're at the point where people are afraid to invest in the stock market," said the former manager and business consultant. "But if retirees want to increase their meager savings, they have to put it where it can grow at a significant pace. They must invest."

Keeping the Millennials / JAN FERRI-REED '75 /

As president of KeyGroup, a consulting and training company, Jan Ferri-Reed and the company's CEO noticed their clients complaining about millennials, employees born between 1980 and 1999. In response, the two women wrote their book, which argues that companies should decrease millennial turnover by working with the generation's demands, which generally, she said, will actually improve companies.

Supervisor's Training Guide / JOYCE KARNES '67 /

This "how-to book for new and experienced supervisors" aims to help first-time and veteran managers become more effective and confident managers. As president and founder of Positive Options Inc., Joyce Karnes draws on more than 20 years of experience to give practical advice. "I received such heartfelt responses from businesses for my help, and I wanted to replicate it for others."

—Rachael Bade '10

ALUMNI BOOKSHELF